Europa-Park presents a festival for all senses - Dinner-Show "Cirque d'Europe": A unique combination of culinary pleasures and first-class entertainment

On November 19th, the red curtain was raised again for a new staging of the Dinner-Show "Cirque d'Europe" at Europa-Park. During the "magical Winter Weeks" Germany's biggest theme park takes the guests of the dinner-show into a fantastic world full of culinary pleasures and artistic perfection. "Mon Amour" is the title of the new show, a culinary spectacle enriched with excellent acrobatics, dance, music and a touch of comedy. The internationally renowned French chef Emile Jung and the cooks of Europa-Park present an exquisite 4-course dinner in a beautiful ambience, accompanied by a number of international top artists - a perfect combination for an unforgettable evening.

The Dinner-Show "Cirque d'Europe" is a top-class combination of food and entertainment. The artfully composed gourmet dinner and a perfectly staged show with fantastic performances create an unforgettable dinner experience for all senses.

The new programme "Mon Amour" stands for pleasure, laughter, amazement and joie de vivre. Every year, thousands of guests have the opportunity to experience numerous evening events and with the Dinner-Show "Cirque d'Europe" Europa-Park proves once again that it offers its guests sophisticated entertainment. The combination of culinary pleasures, breathtaking show performances with international artists, excellent cuisine, perfect organisation and a glamorous ambience in the baroque theatre "Teatro dell'Arte" is a unique experience.

Also this year, Europa-Park was able to win the internationally renowned chef Emile Jung from Alsace for the Dinner-Show "Cirque d'Europe", so that the guests of the gourmet theatre can savour the superb dinner created by the owner of the gourmet restaurant "Au Crocodile" in Strasbourg once again. But also the show programme leaves nothing to be desired: stunning acrobatics, fantastic dance performances and
