Viva España: The Spanish Feria in Germany's biggest theme park offers paella, tapas, flamenco, sangria? and a great holiday feeling! On August 26th and 27th, all visitors of Europa-Park can experience southern ambience and the typical Spanish way of life.

In the Spanish themed area, the visitors can join in the colourful hustle and bustle of a typical Spanish festival, while the street musicians "Los Taytas? and "Los Paraguayos? guarantee great entertainment.

Already during the day, the younger visitors of Europa-Park can watch a fun show programme. In addition, several cultural shows are presented. For example, Spanish luthiers and potters will present their handicraft. Cavaliers on Andalusian thoroughbred horses and Spanish flamenco dancers guarantee a special southern flair and bring a piece of Andalusia to the Upper Rhine Area.

Paella, tapas, Spanish wines and cool sangria - these are just some of the Spanish specialities that can be savoured on the Spanish Feria. A varied entertainment programme is offered not only by Spanish musicians but also by the international artists of Europa-Park.

Also in the evening, a special entertainment programme is offered to the visitors: from 7.00 pm on the popular band "Ramiro y Compadres? inspires young and old to dance Cha-Cha-Cha, Bolero, Salsa and Rumba. In the Spanish Arena, the visitors can watch an evening performance of the Gladiator Show, which thrills the audience with impressive stunts and special effects.
