Special Events 2006

October 1st - November 5th: Spooky Halloween Weeks

Halloween for the whole family! Europa-Park is transformed into a nice and eerie Halloween landscape with 120,000 colourful pumpkins and ghostly illumination. A creepy get-together for witches, ghosts, goblins and magicians!

October 2nd - 8th: Bavarian "Oktoberfest"

The most popular German folk festival, the Bavarian Oktoberfest, is celebrated in proper style at Europa-Park. A whole lot of fun is guaranteed with traditional music, "Oktoberfest" beer and Bavarian food.

October 12th - 14th: Science Days

Science education for children and students: already for the 6th time Europa-Park invites students and teachers to learn more about science and technology with the help of hands-on experiments, activities and workshops.

October 25th: ProSieben Live-Show "Stars auf Eis?"

Based on the successful US television show "Skating with Celebrities?", a number of courageous German celebrities will demonstrate their ice-skating abilities in six live-shows, starting on October 25th. The show is presented by two-time Olympic Champion Katharina Witt, who will support the celebrities already during their training sessions.

October 28th - November 5th: Halloweenfestival

A spine-chilling Halloween highlight with creepy evening parade and spectacular Halloween-Show. Definitely a must-see for all fans of Halloween!

October 28th - November 1st: Balthasar's Horror Market

In the gruesomely decorated castle park the visitors can enter a world full of myth and medieval legends.

October 31st: SWR3 Halloween-Party
