Festival Hall shines in new Splendour

The new Festival Hall at Europa-Park is the perfect location for glamorous festivities in an exclusive ambience. After a complete renovation, Europa-Park's popular event location shines in new splendour since November 2008.

The new Festival Hall is designed in neo-classical style and divided into the ballroom "Berlin", with a total floor space of 800 square metres, and the conference room "Goethe". Lovingly designed 19th century decoration provides the new Confertainment location, which is designed in red and gold, with a glamorous flair. Elegant ladies in flowing gowns can dance to the sounds of classical music under pretentious golden chandeliers.

But the ballroom "Berlin" not only invites the guests to celebrate glamorous galas, it is also the perfect location for conferences. The room can be divided into the conference rooms "Sanssouci", with a floor space of 425 square metres, and "Bellevue", with a floor space of 387 square metres, by means of a mobile partition wall. Moreover, the new Festival Hall features a foyer with a floor space of 180 square metres, which can be used as an additional location for conferences and events.

Also the access to the Festival Hall is new. The guests can either enter the foyer "Goethe" via Europa-Park's main entrance or the entry area "Unter den Linden" via the German Alley. With a direct connection to the nearby Confertainment locations "Teatro dell'Arte" and "Media Hall", the new Festival Hall is an ideal platform for conferences and events at Europa-Park.
