Highlights of the Winter Season 2010/11

November

19 November 2010 – 5 February 2011: Dinner-Show “Cirque d’Europe”

An artistic highlight for all gourmets: with a fascinating evening programme the new Dinner-Show “Azzurro” enchants its guests inside the baroque theatre Teatro dell’Arte. First-class artists and chefs treat all senses with a 4-course menu created by the French starred chef Emile Jung, combined with acrobatics, dance and a touch of comedy.

27 November 2010 – 9 January 2011 (except 24/25 December): Winter season at Europa-Park

White Christmas trees, sparkling lights and a fantastic winter show programme herald the cold time of the year at Europa-Park. Special attractions such as the Children’s Ski School and Snow Tubing let not only children’s faces glow with joy! Special highlights are the 55 metre high big wheel “Bellevue” and the fantastic art exhibition “Tomi Ungerer – the World of Animals”. Europa-Park is open during winter from 27 November 2010 until 9 January 2011 (except 24/25 December).
